WOULD INVESTIGATE TRADING OPERATIONS AT PRAIRIE MARKET

John I. McFarland, Manager of Central Selling Agency Believes Foreign Countries Taking Advantage of Government Efforts to Stabilize Wheat—Draws Ottawa's Attention

WINNIPEG, Oct. 1 (CP).—Grain men here tonight studied a suggestion that certain interests have taken advantage of Government efforts to stabilize wheat prices. Sale of huge quantities of wheat on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange, today, elicited from John I. McFarland, general manager of the Central Selling Agency of the Canadian wheat pools, the suggestion that the Federal Government investigate wheat trading operations.

Director of efforts by the Federal Government to hold the wheat market at an even level, Mr. McFarland intimated that he would like to see similar investigations of recent market operations in Buenos Aires and Liverpool. His suggestion followed published reports in London that a wheat corner was being prepared to control Argentine exports in an effort to break Canadian prices.

Asked what action he had recommended, Mr. McFarland intimated he had simply brought the matter to the attention of the authorities, but if he were asked what should be done he would suggest that in addition to the investigation of selling, representation might be made by the Canadian Government to the Government of Argentina as well as the Government of the United Kingdom in connection with the Buenos Aires and Liverpool markets.

SUGGESTION OFFERED
OTTAWA, Oct. 1 (CP).—Announcement by John I. McFarland, head of the central selling agency of the wheat pool, that he would ask for an investigation of the selling of wheat on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange, brings the suggestion from wheat experts here that it may be found advisable to appoint a Government representative on the exchange. Sir Joseph Stamp, who investigated the

SEE MENACE IN AIR STRENGTH

Japanese Army Command Says United States Force Possible Danger

TOKIO, Oct. 1 (AP).—The Japanese army command published an official pamphlet today, in which the strength of the United States in aviation was described as a possible menace to Japan.
The necessity for continued preparations for possible war with Russia was emphasized.
The pamphlet denounced the accumulation of wealth by relatively few persons, and the "enjoyment of income without labor by a certain section of the nation."
The pamphlet, entitled "Proposals for Strengthening the Empire's Defense Policy," was issued by the War Office press bureau, and was a larger programme along the lines of the Southern Trans-Provincial Highway. Work has started already at Castlegar and Blueberry Creek, and will be followed shortly at Stung Creek and Sullivan. These four projects will be completed at a cost in the neighborhood of $10,500.

At Castlegar, the highway will be carried over the lines of the Canadian Pacific Railway, by a 145-foot trestle structure, with steel beams, to cost $3,300. The driveway will be twenty feet, exclusive of a sidewalk.
Similar construction will be used at Blueberry Creek, where a 107-foot trestle, with steel beams, will take the road over the river at that point, in a project to cost $2,100.

ADDITIONAL WORK
Plans are being made for further trestle bridges at Murphy Creek, to cost $3,300, and at Sullivan, where the work will be done for $1,800, the Minister of Public Works indicated. This work is part of a general programme of improvements, replacements and repairs to highways, to be carried out as funds are available, Mr. MacPherson said.

WON LAST BET BUT CASHED NO TICKET

JAMAICA, Oct. 1 (AP).—Charles Earle's horse finished first today but Earle was not there to cash his ticket. As the horses came pounding down the stretch in the close finish, the crowd, when a doctor arrived, he was dead.

PARACHUTE FAILED
AMIENS, France, Oct. 1 (AP).—Gustave Lemoine, thirty-two, noted aviator, was killed today when his parachute failed to open as he leaped from a falling airplane.

Sale of Railway May End Bandit Attacks

Under the terms of a sale just announced, the Chinese Eastern Railway, trouble spot of the Orient, becomes the property of Manchukuo for a reported consideration of $50,000,000 to Russia. The sale is expected to halt such depredations as that pictured above when a locomotive was wrecked by bandits near Harbin, Manchukuo. Several passengers were killed in this wreck.

Labor Federation Head Backs Roosevelt's Plan For Capital-Labor Truce

Subscriptions on First Day of Loan Exceed $35,000,000

OTTAWA, Oct. 1 (CP).—The Minister of Finance announced tonight that an incomplete compilation of reports indicated a total of more than $35,000,000 subscribed to the new 1934 Refunding Loan for the first day. The issue is for $250,000,000.
The figure includes only business done in a few of the larger centres. It does not take into account a very heavy volume of large subscriptions of which the Department of Finance has been advised, but which will not be entered formally until boards of directors and investment committees of financial and other institutions have met.

Claims Resignation Asked for Failure To Act on 'Command'

Col. George A. Drew, Ontario Securities Commissioner, Refused to Grant Application of Salesman Convicted Twelve Times

TORONTO, Oct. 1 (CP).—Colonel George A. Drew, dismissed Ontario securities commissioner, tonight made public correspondence which, he claimed, showed that Attorney-General Arthur Roebuck sought his resignation after he had refused the application of a certain securities salesman.

WANT PRISONER IN NEW JERSEY

State Anxious to Extradite Hauptmann Before His Trial for Extortion

NEW YORK, Oct. 1 (AP).—Extradition of Bruno Richard Hauptmann, to New Jersey, to stand trial for the kidnapping and killing of baby Charles Lindbergh, before the alien ex-convict is tried in the Bronx for allegedly extorting $50,000 ransom, was looked for by Governor Harry Moore, tonight.
This announcement followed the disclosure by Attorney General David T. Wilentz, of New Jersey, that new evidence found since Saturday has strengthened the case against Hauptmann. He would not discuss its nature.

SALVATION ARMY LEADER IS NAMED

Commissioner John McMillan Appointed Head in Canada—Succeeds Commissioner Hay

TORONTO, Oct. 1 (CP).—Commissioner John McMillan, New York, will succeed Commissioner James Hay, retiring as head of the Salvation Army in Canada. Commissioner Hay will leave his post, which he held for five years, in November, and will make a visit to the Old Country. Commissioner McMillan at present is the territorial commander of the Army in the Eastern United States. He will take over his duties as commander of the Army work in Canada, Newfoundland, Alaska and Bermuda some time in November.

Pilot Escapes With Life When Byrd's Autogyro Crashes

LITTLE AMERICA, Antarctic, Oct. 1 (AP via MacKay Radio).—The autogyro of the Byrd Antarctic Expedition crashed here late yesterday, shortly after taking off on an aerological flight, but without serious injury to the pilot, William McCormick. The machine was wrecked. McCormick escaped with a broken left arm, minor bruises and a severe shaking up.

Accident at Funeral Is Disastrous

PRINCE RUPERT, Oct. 1 (CP).—Two Japanese, a man and a woman, are in hospital, and several others are suffering from bruises and lacerations, following the collapse today of the sidewalk in front of an undertaking parlor.
The funeral of a Japanese youth was in progress and the body was being carried from the parlor to the hearse. Scores of mourners and the casket were precipitated down a fifteen-foot rocky embankment.

GOVERNMENT TO CONTINUE RULE

Port Alberni Police Commission Advised Plebiscite Is Only Way Out

Conference between the Government and Port Alberni police commissioners, over the question of the appointment of a plebiscite, ended yesterday morning with an announced change in the situation. The Province will continue to direct administration of justice in the area, under supervision of the Provincial Police.
Attorney-General Sloan received a delegation from the Port Alberni police board, composed of Mayor Dave W. Warnock and Commissioner Cronk.

Monster Is Problem to A Convent

ATHEENS, Oct. 1 (CP-Havas).—A monster resembling the famous Loch Ness sea serpent, has brought consternation among the inhabitants of Megara, it was reported today.
The monster, of the land type, was said to have been seen on property of the Holy Hierotheos Convent. The prior of the convent has offered a reward of 5,000 drachmas ($500) for the capture of the animal, dead or alive.

Californian Official Sends Complaint of Provincial Highways

Tourist Manager of Automobile Club Asks Why Government Refuses to Be Interested in Tourist Motor Travel Worth Millions

VANCOUVER, Oct. 1 (CP).—Tourists who have visited British Columbia this year have reported the roads in a "deplorable condition," D. Doig, tourist manager of the Automobile Club of Southern California, has reported in a letter to J. H. Booth, manager of the Automobile Club of Vancouver.
In his letter, Mr. Doig asked three questions:
"What has happened to British Columbia in so far as its highway system is concerned? Has the Provincial Government curtailed its highway activities?"
"Why has the Provincial Government of British Columbia, virtually, as well as actually in the majority of instances, declined to be interested in tourist motor travel, an industry which undoubtedly does bring in millions upon millions of dollars a year?"
"Last, but not least, are there any plans under way by the Department of Highways of the Province to bring back within the next few months the old standard on the few major trunking highways, east and west, and north and south, through the Province?"

OVER THOUSAND CONVICTS ESCAPE

Five More Reach Port of Spain From Devil's Island Penal Settlement

PORT OF SPAIN, Trinidad, Oct. 1 (AP).—Five more bedraggled Devil's Island convicts, who escaped from the tropical French prison colony, came into port today.
They arrived in flimsy boats and were taken into custody at once by authorities. But the prisoners welcomed arrest in this port, and knew they will not be turned over to French prison officials. The usual procedure is to deport them to some other state.
Figures compiled by penal authorities in French Guiana show that in six years more than 1,000 convicts have escaped from the Devil's Island colonies.

MEDICAL MEN HOLD DINNER

Dr. John A. Stewart Elected President at Annual Meeting Here

The annual meeting of the Victoria Medical Society took place last night in the form of a dinner at the Union Club, which was attended by a representative gathering of medical men of the Capital City.

The main business before the meeting was the election of officers, which resulted as follows: President, Dr. John A. Stewart; vice-president, Dr. Stuart G. Kenning; honorary secretary-treasurer, Dr. G. A. Watson; library committee, Dr. F. A. C. Couland; Dr. A. B. Nash, and Dr. W. E. M. Mitchell. Dr. Gordon C. Kenning was elected representative to the British Columbia Medical Association. Dr. J. W. Lennox moved a vote of thanks to the retiring executive. The retiring president, Dr. J. Norman Taylor, presided at the dinner and responded on behalf of Dr. G. P. Aylward, the secretary-treasurer, and himself, to the vote of thanks.

TAX REDUCTIONS ARE PREDICTED

"Money is accumulating," Mr. Rhodes said, "and good investments are eagerly sought. Interest rates have therefore declined materially and the tendency is downwards. This downward trend is already apparent in the rates paid on bank deposits as well as high grade securities, and will soon permeate our whole financial system with resultant stimulus to expanding economic activity."

MORE NORMAL LEVELS

"The difference between the 5 1/2 per cent paid on the maturing bonds and the 3.81 per cent on the new fifteen year bonds measures the progress made in restoring interest rates to more normal levels from the abnormal heights caused by the exigencies of the Great War."

National revenues for the first six months of the current fiscal year exceeded those for the same period last year by over $26,000,000. Mr. Rhodes said, and the prospects were excellent for a surplus in ordinary account in the next Dominion budget. The Canadian National Railways had also shown an im-

Will Welcome Convention Delegates

HON. DR. G. M. WEIR
President, B.C.M.A.

J. M. COADY
Mayor, Vancouver.

MAYOR LEEMING

When the seventeenth annual convention of the British Columbia Medical Association meets at the Empress Hotel at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning for its three-day sessions, President J. M. Coady, of Vancouver, will be the guest of honor.

Mayor David Leeming and Hon. George M. Weir, British Columbia Provincial Secretary, who is honorary president of the association, will give addresses of welcome immediately after the opening of the proceedings. The remainder of the morning session will be taken up with President Coady's reply to these greetings, the reading of the president's annual report, the appointment of committees, business arising out of last year's convention, and announcements. The afternoon session will consider four or five matters of much importance to hospitals and their governing bodies, viz., minimum wages and hours of work as applied to hospitals; superannuation for hospital employees; Workmen's Compensation Board matters; municipal acts; and a number of questions that have been submitted. Adam Bell, chairman of the Board of Industrial Relations, will lead the discussion of the minimum wages question. Delegates from all parts of the province will be here for the convention.

provement in the first eight months of the calendar year by about $8,000,000.

BIG SAVING MADE

"From 1931 to 1933 we were able to refund $88,000,000 upon a basis that has saved for the taxpayers $9,000,000 a year in debt service charges," declared the Prime Minister. "When this year's refunding operations are completed, more than a billion dollars of war loan bonds will have been refunded, and annual interest charges will have been reduced by over $14,000,000."

"I need not remind you how important are such economies in these days when all men charged with the administration of national affairs are straining every effort to balance national budgets. They are fully aware that business can only thrive and business men be encouraged to embark upon new ventures, when they are assured that the result of their efforts will not be subject to undue impositions."

TAX REDUCTION

"Had it not been for the extraordinary expenditures incurred in providing for unemployment relief and other emergency obligations that had to be met as the result of the long-drawn-out world-wide depression, the savings in interest to which I have referred combined with other economies in ordinary and capital expenditures would already have enabled the Government to reduce taxation."

APPEALS TO PURCHASERS

"The Government is most anxious that the tens of thousands of small investors who still hold the maturing bonds should, within the next few days, accept the conversion offer published officially in the newspapers today," declared Mr. Rhodes. "Purchasers of securities in large amounts, such as banks, insurance companies and other institutions may be expected to accept promptly."

TESTIFIED TO FACTS

Chief John Syme, of Oak Bay testified to the facts connected with the locating of the youths in the residence which was robbed. The jewelry found in possession of the youths had been identified since they had entered the house through a basement window. The entrance was made just before 9 o'clock in the evening.

TERMS ARE SIMPLE

"The terms of the offer are comparatively simple. Those who hold maturing bonds may tender them in exchange for new bonds and receive an adjusting payment in cash. This tender may be made direct at the office of the assistant Receiver General for Canada in each province or through your own bank or bond dealers. All those who convert will receive a bonus of one-half month's interest. The new bonds run for two, five, eight or fifteen years. To meet the requirements of all classes of investors, a special concession is made to holders who act promptly. On all conversions made on or before October 6 into eight or fifteen-year bonds a premium or one-eighth and one-quarter of one per cent respectively will be allowed on the maturing bonds. After that date, if the lists are still open, the surrender value of the maturing bonds will be paid."

INTEREST YIELD VARIES

"Subscribers for cash will enter their subscriptions immediately and pay for their bonds on or about October 16 after receiving notification as to the amount allotted on the basis of the maturing bonds will be paid."

PLEA FOR LENIENCY

Roy Manser, who appeared for Garrett, put forward a plea for leniency, saying that accused's previous record had been that of a good boy.

Mrs. Margaret Parry, who had been in social service work, testified in favor of Garrett. She had known the family, and while the father was ill, the accused boy had been of great assistance in the home. He had been most industrious and helpful to the mother.

Mrs. Parry added that she had been informed by the mother that the boy had met with an accident while living in Vancouver when a dynamite charge went off. He had been injured then and had ever since shown an excitable disposition.

Witness said that the boy had tried to get work and had failed. He had gone to a camp, and she was of the opinion that he fell under evil companionship while there.

His mother also testified, corroborating the information given by Mrs. Parry.

justice to the public of Ontario," Colonel Drew said.

INTENDED AS COMMAND

"The pretended courtesy of his request does not disguise the fact that it was intended to be a command," Colonel Drew continued. "The manner of the delivery of his letter proved that. What made his action doubly insulting was the fact that I tried earlier in the day to arrange an appointment with Mr. Roebuck, but was told he was too busy."

Colonel Drew added that Mr. Roebuck was not, however, too busy to see the salesman in question. He alleged that the Attorney-General had the salesman's record before him when he wrote the letter.

Colonel Drew closed his office within a couple of hours of notification that he had been dismissed by a special order-in-council.

AGRICULTURE TO BE TAUGHT IN SCHOOLS

TORONTO, Oct. 1 (CP).—Hon. Duncan Marshall, Ontario Minister of Agriculture, tonight announced that plans were being made by the Department of Agriculture and Education to place agriculture on the public school curriculum. He told the Young Men's Canadian Club, in an address, that he had reached an understanding with Hon. Dr. L. J. Simpson, Minister of Education, regarding teaching of scientific agriculture in all public schools.

Miss Phyllis Devenson's exhibit was judged in Class 354 (six decorated tea cakes) and awarded first prize.

STUDENTS READY FOR HEAVY YEAR

Victoria College Is Scene of Meetings as Students Settle Down to Work

With the time-honored ceremonies of "rushing" over, Victoria College students yesterday cast aside their fun-loving natures and plunged into the first scholastic year of the term. Coupled with the school work were preparations for a heavy year in extra-curricular undertakings.

Percy Wickert was elected president of the college badminton club at a recent inaugural meeting, while Miss T. Farquhar was named secretary. These two will organize the club's activities for the year.

Today will see a meeting of the Players' Club, under the direction of President Fred Robson. Election of a vice-president and secretary will be the principal business.

Next Thursday is the last day students may nominate for posts vacant on the students' council. The elections will be held on October 11. Positions on the council to be filled include men's and women's athletic representatives and junior members.

STORY CONTEST BEING PLANNED

Competition Will Be Held in Conjunction With Canadian Book Week

In connection with Canadian Book Week, a short story competition will be held, which will be open to the young people resident upon Vancouver Island.

This competition, which will be an annual affair, is promoted for the encouragement of the budding literary talent among Canadian youth. Marion Angus, secretary of the Victoria and Island Branch of the Canadian Authors' Association, states:

Cash prizes will be awarded stories, which will appear in print, at an early date.

Conditions of this competition will appear in this paper next Sunday.

Indian Arrested After Smash on Island Highway

Harry Dick, an Indian, was in custody of Provincial Police last night, following an accident on the Island Highway shortly after 8 o'clock last night, when an automobile he was driving collided with a Cowichan Freight Company truck near the Langford School.

The cars met head-on and were both considerably damaged.

The Indian was placed under arrest and may be charged in the police court this morning. Both drivers received minor cuts and bruises, but not serious enough to warrant hospital treatment.

TAX PENALTY CAUSES RUSH

Treasury Department at City Hall Crowded With Property-Holders

Employees from other civic departments were transferred to the treasury office, yesterday, to cope with the eleventh-hour rush to pay current tax accounts before the penalty came into effect.

All day the foyer of the city's treasury department was crowded with property holders, and the employees had to work late last night to balance the day's accounts, after one of the busiest collection periods for some years.

While it will be several weeks before civic officials will know exactly what percentage of taxes has been paid, it was made known, yesterday, that collection of tax arrears showed an increase of nearly 50 per cent over the collections for the same period ending September, last year. This year a total of $28,100 was collected, as compared with $19,065 for the same period of 1933.

Today the first penalty on current accounts becomes effective. A 1 per cent penalty will be imposed. This, however, does not fall on accounts paid by mail where the postmark shows that the cheque was mailed before the penalty date. Treasury department employees will start on the mail accounts today, now that the big over-the-counter rush is finished.

Reductions up to a dollar a gallon were announced yesterday on rye, Irish, Canadian and imported Scotch whiskeys sold by the Liquor Control Board. Advances in price on French and Italian wines, liqueurs and brandies, ranging from ten cents to one dollar were announced at the same time to cover increase in foreign exchange. Gin prices are to be reduced from five to ten cents, and loganberry wine by twenty-five cents a gallon, eliminating a charge for containers.

The reductions on whiskeys vary from five cents on a 16-oz. bottle to one dollar a gallon on Liquor Control Board Crown brandy. Imported bottled Scotch will sell for $3.65, and B.C. bottled brands for $3.50, with popular brands around $4 a bottle. There is a general reduction on gin, ranging from five cents to ten cents.

Rise in the franc from 4 1/2 to 6 1/2 cents is forcing up prices on imported wines, liqueurs, etc. Champagnes will sell from $4.75 to $5.50; Burgundy from $1.85 to $3.40, and brandies from $2.90 to $5.60, with liqueurs advanced from ten to fifteen cents each.

The new trade agreement between Canada and France, once ratified, is expected to alter prices on European wines again, and may mean a return to lower charges, it is announced.

Reduction in whisky and other prices follows a general move to bring down the cost to the consumer on goods sold by the board. Reduction on beer prices, through pooled freights and in other ways, have been announced from time to time at various centres in the province.

Liquor Board revenues, it is understood, have increased in consequence, though to what extent has not yet been detailed.

With her back to the wall, Germany is ready to fight and sacrifice everything for the Fatherland, and the German people believe they have a mission under the leadership of Hitler. Everywhere German soldiers are marching and participating in military manoeuvres, and military uniforms and colored shirts are to be found on every hand, Mr. Reynolds said.

FUNERAL SERVICE HELD

A large number of friends attended the funeral of the late Lucy Garner, which took place on Monday afternoon at Christ Church Cathedral. Rev. A. E. Balfour conducted the service, during which the hymns "O Love That Will Not Let Me Go" and "Dear Lord and Father of Mankind" were sung. The remains were taken to Seattle for cremation. The following were the pallbearers: J. Colthorne, A. E. Bailey, D. L. Gilbert, H. W. Cliff, W. R. Jones and J. H. Lane.

While the property had been re-conveyed to the Browns, the mortgage still stood against it. Mr. Davey asked to be allowed to proceed, in the Supreme Court, against Mr. Maynard, and the trustees in bankruptcy, in an effort to collect the amount of the mortgage.

On application of A. J. Patton, for Mr. Maynard, an adjournment was granted until Friday, in order to allow the inspectors in the Maynard bankruptcy to be consulted in the matter.

LAI'D AT REST

Funeral services for the late Herbert O. T. Brewster were conducted, yesterday afternoon, by Rev. T. M. Hughes, at which many friends were present. The hymns sung were "Rock of Ages" and "Lead, Kindly Light." A large number of beautiful floral tributes were received. The following acted as pallbearers: T. M. Menden, P. Wilkin, D. Hunter and A. Mycock. The remains were laid at rest in Royal Oak Burial Park.

WILL COMPILE FEDERAL LIST

Registrar and Canvassers to Commence Week's Drive on Oct. 15

Some 210 canvassers will cover Victoria's new Federal riding on a six-day campaign commencing October 15, to compile names of those entitled to vote at the next Dominion election, it was announced, yesterday morning, by James Wilson, registrar, with offices at 225 Pemberton Building.

The canvass will be made in the city, Oak Bay, Esquimalt and parts of Saanich. The area will be divided into 105 divisions, with approximately 250 voters in each. Two canvassers will visit each division, duly authenticated.

The registrar's office, in the Pemberton Building, will remain open during the week of October 15, between 9 a.m. and 6 p.m., for the convenience of the public.

Preparation of a new Federal voters' list in this area is the object of the canvass, Mr. Wilson stated.

ARCHIE WILLS NEW DIRECTOR

Ardent Promotion Worker Elected to Y.M.C.A. Board—Reports Received

Archie Wills, who for many years has been active in Y.M.C.A. promotional work in Victoria, was last night elected to the Victoria Y.M.C.A. board of directors. He will fill the chair left vacant by the resignation of Byron Johnson, M.P.P.

Last year Mr. Wills was a member of the boys' work committee and served as chairman of the publicity committee during the 1934 Y.M.C.A. financial campaign. His appointment to the board was welcomed by the directors and Frank Paulding, organizing secretary.

In presenting the monthly financial report, Treasurer J. O. Cameron pointed out that the association was holding its own in finances. Mr. Cameron also indicated that many activities are planned by the association with a view to helping the budget. These activities will include a membership campaign, which will extend from October 8 to 12; tag day, to be held October 20; organization of an endowment fund, scheduled for November; annual hobby show that will be sponsored next January; the Y.M.C.A. Circus that will be staged in May, and the 1935 financial campaign that will be conducted in March.

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

Detailing the work done by the Y.M.C.A. at the Willows Exhibition, and stating that 280 boys were contacted through the association's first big book at the fair, E. G. Rowbottom, chairman of the membership committee, presented his report to an appreciative board.

Mr. Rowbottom announced that, although the membership campaign will officially open on Friday, capitalizing on the success of the drive will gather on Wednesday at 6:15 p.m. in the Y.M.C.A., for a preliminary dinner meeting. The inaugural dinner meeting will be held on Friday at 6:15 p.m. in the Y.M.C.A. Reports meetings will be held the following Tuesday and on Friday, October 11. The latter meeting will take the form of a banquet, marking the nineteenth Founders' Day and celebration.

The physical department report, submitted by Dr. T. W. A. Gray, chairman, drew much favorable comment, as it told a story of great accomplishments. Track and field athletes recently won great honors, both at home and in other lands; it was pointed out. Joseph Addison won his place on the athletic team that traveled to England, and William Dale and James Cousins qualified for a trip to Hamilton. In other lines of sports and in regular class work, Y.M.C.A. members also performed well during the Summer. Dr. Gray reminded the board.

MAKING LEADERS

Given a general review of the work of the Summer and of the annual camp, J. V. Johnson, as chairman, presented the report for the boys' work committee. He explained that a number of good leaders were being developed among the younger and older boys' groups. During the past month the house committee spent approximately $400 on equipment, mainly for the dormitories, which supplemented the excellent work done recently by the Ladies' Auxiliary in refurbishing and rehabilitating the rooms, J. Bennell said, in presenting the report for the house committee.

Directors will hold a committee conference day on October 28 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Jameson. Sooke, it was decided by the directors.

Ship of Italian Line Rammed by American Vessel

VANCOUVER, Oct. 1 (CP)—The Italian Line M.S. Leme, due here Thursday to Empire Shipping, was in collision with the American S.S. Herbert Schaefer above San Pedro, on Sunday morning, Vancouver Merchants' Exchange reported today.

The Leme has arrived at San Francisco with a large hole in her port aft of amidships and the Herbert Schaefer is at San Pedro with bow damage. The Empire Shipping Company has not yet received any word as to whether the damage will delay the Leme.

THE NATIONAL CREDIT

Financial policy must always be determined with an eye to the future and to the maintenance of sound credit rather than to the mere needs of the moment. A business man may conceivably obtain a temporary advantage by breaking a business engagement; a mercantile firm may gain a quick return of profit by refusing to implement its undertakings, but in the long run such a course will inevitably result in a loss of reputation and credit, a circumstance which is likely to involve further serious damage of a substantial character. Everyone understands what is required in the business conduct of individuals. If a man desires to keep his credit unshaken he must steer a straight course, keep his engagements, and play the game according to sound ethical principles.

This is thoroughly understood and accepted as almost axiomatic in the case of individuals, but it is perhaps not so clearly understood in some quarters that these principles apply not with less force, but, if possible, with even greater force to corporate institutions of a public character, a municipality, a province, or the country as a whole. A single act of default will infallibly injure the credit of the public defaulter. Governments must see to it that their credit is kept unimpaired. They know that in order to do this they must keep faith with their creditors.

Extravagance on the part of public spending bodies has often been followed by a period of hard times. Excessive speculation and wasteful habits on the part of private citizens have brought about similar results. When, however, both of these factors are actively at work a crash is bound to come. The prices of commodities decline and debtors are unable to meet their obligations to their creditors. Perhaps the governmental authorities begin to tamper with the currency and require the creditor to accept payment from the debtor in a medium whose actual purchasing power has been greatly reduced. This may improve the position of the debtor for the moment at the expense of the creditor. The high prices and taxation, however, which follow inflation of the currency will in the future bear heavily upon debtor and creditor alike, whether such inflation has been by the free use of the printing press, or by extensive issues of new government bonds, or by large expenditures from the national treasury.

The foregoing is in fact an outline of what has happened in the United States, although it does not yet appear what is in store for that country if there should be a further devaluation of the dollar and further taxation on a great scale to put the country's public accounts in order. A lavish spending policy in some provinces of Canada has reduced the credit of a number of them, and made it difficult for provincial treasurers to find investors ready to take up provincial bonds at a moderate rate of interest. The remedy for this state of affairs is to be found in a policy of rigid economy, just as it would be in the case of a private individual. Reputation is no remedy. Where is the investor who would invest a single dollar in an issue of the bonds of a provincial government which was known to be in default in respect of an earlier issue? As for a policy of tampering with the currency, the experience of other countries should be an effective warning against the consequences of that course.

WOMANIZING OF THE WORLD

In Good Housekeeping, Mr. St. John Ervine has been discussing "The Womanizing of the World." This fact is something in the nature of a mystery to everyone who troubles to think about it, but one explanation of the extraordinary disparity in apparent numbers, in Great Britain at least, is the fact that a million men are said to be in the Great War. Mr. Ervine says that the age at which any person begins to be potent in affairs is forty, and the majority of men who would now be that age are dead. They are buried in France, Gallipoli, Palestine and Africa. Women of middle age are plentiful.

The truth is that wherever you go plenty of women are to be found. The meetings of dramatic societies, lectures, the theatre, even political meetings have a preponderance of women. They are found at football matches, at prize fights, at sports of all kinds. It is, however, in modern industry that the presence of women is most apparent. In factories and workshops women and girls seem to predominate; in banks they are growing more numerous. The social and economic reactions of this fact are incalculable. It may be that marriage is still the chief object of life for women, but if it is then the chances are notably decreased because men are unemployed since women have the jobs. Perhaps the social basis of marriage will be altered and in the future women will earn the living. Mr. Ervine says that there are now enough examples of women marrying and maintaining unemployed men to forecast such a change in the relationship of men and women.

The womanizing of the world is all the more remarkable because of the fact that the disparity in population between men and women is almost negligible. Great Britain, it is true, has 21,464,711 men to 23,325,774 women. In the United States, however, and in Australia, Canada, India and the Union of South Africa there are more men than women. The fact remains, however, that in many departments of life women seem to be greatly in excess of men. Mr. Ervine attributes this to the aftermath of the war years. The majority of the middle-aged men, for instance, are feeling the effects of the war. Their stamina is weaker; their physical resistance to disease is less; they have a declining curiosity about life; they are increasingly indisposed to bother about anything. Mr. Ervine says such middle-aged men want to take life easily, because they are exhausted. The women of their years are physically fitter than their mothers and grandmothers were at fifty. They lead healthier lives. They are intensely curious about affairs, and they find that fields of inquiry formerly forbidden are now open to them. They have, in short, physical energy and the intellectual zest and so they follow the call of curiosity.

Mr. Ervine considers that the womanizing of the world is partly, at least, due to the fact that so many middle-aged men, who should be prominent in affairs, have been weakened by war experience and are now disinclined to take any responsibility or interest in anything. Women have taken their places. There is an obvious disparity now between the enthusiasms of men and women in their middle age. For the time being women are on top in this respect. The probability is that in a decade or two this disparity will be dissipated and that the sexes will have become more equal in their zest for life.

INFANTILE PARALYSIS

A vaccine for the prevention of infantile paralysis, or poliomyelitis, to use the scientific term, has been developed in Philadelphia by Dr. John Tolmer, of Temple University. The preparation is not a cure for paralysis after infection has set in, but a preventive which must be injected six weeks before the germs enter the body. Should the doctor's claim be validated, the discovery will bring poliomyelitis into the list of diseases that may be obviated by serum treatment, such as diphtheria and smallpox. While this disease is not generally prevalent, as an epidemic, it takes a fearful toll of life, especially of children. British Columbia has been almost free from it during the past two years, only five cases having been reported in 1933.

BENEFACITOR OF YOUTH

The seniors among us will recall with happy memory the name of Bohn, the publisher of translations of the classics. He was the guide, counsellor and friend through the tangled jungle of Virgil and Livy, of Demosthenes and Euripides. Without his books as "ponies" and "cribs" many would have failed on examination day. Henry George Bohn began in 1846 the issue of his famous series of cheap reprints and translations. It was the "Everyman's Library" of his day, and justly achieved an amazing success. Here's to the memory of this benefactor who died fifty years ago this year. It was a schoolboy who once wrote that "the evil that men do lives after them; the good is oft interred in their bones."

What should prove a preventive measure in the matter of crime will go into force on January 1 next, when it will be illegal for anyone to be in possession of a pistol or revolver unless its ownership has been recorded with the police. This is an amendment to the Criminal Code, passed at the last session of Parliament. When the new law is effective all owners of pistols or revolvers must register the fact with an officer of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. Anyone found in illegal possession of such a weapon is liable to a fine of $50, or thirty days in jail.

SUBURBAN OFFENDER

There is an owl, a curious fowl, which dwells near my abode. And oft his cry, both loud and high, is heard above the road. But has it occurred to that hooting bird that its somewhat remarkable song Has been recently made (or so I'm afraid) an illegal act and wrong?

With official frown it is now laid down in the Transport Minister's law That a motor must not, in a built-up spot, yield raucous notes and howl; So why should a fowl be allowed to howl? Small difference can I see 'Twixt a horn that toots and a bird that hoots from a tall suburban tree. That bird, I say, it stands today in urgent need of schooling. Its methods offend against the trend of the Minister's recent ruling: It should without fail be sent to jail, or banished away to Bulgaria. For hooting at night for its own delight in a plainly built-up area.

Note and Comment
By R. B. D.

A sweet disorder in the brain
Kindles in clothes a wantonness.
—Shakespeare.

Events recorded in the newspapers with the greatest prominence are usually of a tragic nature; but even the greatest and gravest of the editors sometimes unbend or relax and give currency to matters of a comical aspect. According to a London newspaper, a nudist colony held a convention (or it may have been a survey) in England a few weeks ago. The first thing any new organization does after organization is hold a convention, listen to speeches and pass resolutions. The nudist convention was very unconventional in one respect, but it was perfectly conventional in that respect. It wore no clothes; it was clad only in the "altogether," like the models in DuMaurier's popular novel.

The nudist convention transacted its business in serenity, regardless of possible journalistic surveys on its outskirts, until there came a sudden change in the weather. The weather cannot be depended upon even in England in the Autumn season of the year. The cold winds began to blow and the chilling rains to fall. The convention, of course, was held under the canopy of heaven, for people afflicted with a tad in the matter of clothes or no clothes at all would be inconsistent if they believed in houses as protection against the vagaries of climate. The climate of England is usually very agreeable, but is somewhat different from what the climate used to be in the Garden of Eden. The bitter wind and the driving rain scattered members of the new cult attending the convention. The men grabbed topcoats and the women wrapped themselves in blankets, and at least a semblance of conventionality prevailed in the convention.

According to our advice the cult of nudism originated in Germany like many other foolish notions. The pure Nordics of Germany may be a harder race than people of much mixed blood. Also the climate of Germany, sunny and hot in Summer and hard and cold in Winter, may be favorable for the development of a race of people capable of living and doing business without clothes. But the fact may be that the cult of nudism in Germany is due to the heavy clothing, both on the body and the head, the soldiers of the German army (every boy in Germany used to be born to be a soldier, and that provision still prevails). It is easy to imagine the feelings of a German conscript after he discarded his thick uniform, his heavy helmet and his ponderous boots and was free to frolic in a state of nature. The nudist cult in Germany was a revolt against the conventions of the German army.

Reading the newspapers is suggestive of another idea regarding this crazy nudist movement. Reading the popular books of the day suggests a further idea. Writers in the newspapers and in books (including our contemporary, in a manner of speaking, Mr. George Bernard Shaw) have been holding up to derision the mock modesty and the silly prudery of the dead or dying people of the Victorian age. The rogue of the nude may be a revolt against the social conventions of the days of the good Queen and her extremely decorous consort. But the perplexing thing about revolutions is that when they begin it is hard to realize where they will stop. It is also a perplexing thing about social revolutions that it is the women who advocate and lead in extremes.

In the social matter of dress, the women of our day are like the German conscript. It has become the fashionable custom to cut away and snipe down dress until the clothes left are scanty and furnish very little protection against the extremes of the weather, not to mention other things which might be mentioned. The men are either more conventional or more sensible than the women. We shall refrain from elaborating that point lest we may be charged with exceeding the limits of decent reticence—if there are any left in this progressive period of the world's history.

We know that the male of the species is not nearly so carried away by the new cult of the nude as the female of the noble species. Probably that is why we have not seen in the English papers another period signed by the Three Tailors of Tooley Street. If the men of England all joined the nudist cult, what would become of the tailoring and clothing business and the cloth weaving and manufacturing business of the country? The haters have protested vigorously, even pathetically, against the modern hatless cult. It is reassuring that the men have drawn the line at the hat and have gone no farther down. It is true, at least to a certain extent in these revolutionary days as it was true in other turbulent days, that the clothes make the man or distinguish the man if they do not actually make him.

In 1857, when the Great Eastern was built, it was the largest ship in the world at that time.

PLANS MADE FOR SERVICE

Thanksgiving Day Ceremonies to Be Held Next Monday in St. Andrew's Church

Arrangements for holding the annual Thanksgiving Day service, in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, next Monday, at 11 a.m., were made at the monthly meeting of the Ministerial Association, yesterday morning, in the Y.M.C.A. On invitation of the association, Mayor David Leeming and members of the City Council are expected to be present. The sermon will be preached by Rev. William Allan, minister of Wilkeson United Church, Rev. Dr. A. S. Irvine will give the prayer and Rev. J. S. Patterson will read the Scriptures. The president of the association, Rev. Dr. E. A. Henry, will conduct the service, and Rev. H. P. S. Luttrell, minister of St. Andrew's, will pronounce the benediction. The offering will be devoted to the Citizens' Recreation Rooms, the work of which was highly commended by various ministers present.

Rev. G. A. Reynolds gave an interesting address on his recent visit to Great Britain and Europe, in the course of which he strongly urged on his fellow ministers the necessity of promoting the spirit of the Bible Society. He also presented the claims of the Bible Society, the Canadian branch of which, he said, sends to the parent British Society about $40,000 a year for its world-wide work, in addition to its expenditures in Canada.

MINISTERS INTRODUCED

Rev. F. W. Anderson, formerly of Nanaimo, who is about to take charge of the Garrison United Church, Esquimalt, was introduced, and also Rev. H. E. D. Ashford, of Dhar, India, who spoke briefly on the new indigenous theology that is being developed in India.

At the invitation of St. Aidan's United Church, Mount Tolmie, the annual "Quiet Day" for the ministers of Greater Victoria, will be held in that church, on November 3, the leader for which has not yet been arranged.

Expressing appreciation of the hospitality of the Y.M.C.A. during a number of years, the association decided to hold its meetings, this Winter, in the Y.W.C.A.

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

(From The Daily British Colonist of October 2, 1884)

Nearly shot—Late yesterday afternoon, as a lady and a gentleman were driving in a busy near Glover point, they were startled by a loud report, which was followed by the fall of a man. The man, who was shot, was a young man, who had been seen in the vicinity of the point, and was supposed to be a member of the local militia. The man was shot in the chest, and was killed. The man's name was John Smith, and he was a member of the local militia. The man was shot by a man who was also a member of the local militia. The man who shot the man was named John Doe, and he was a member of the local militia. The man who shot the man was named John Doe, and he was a member of the local militia.

No letter to the Editor will be inserted except over the proper signature and address of the writer. This rule admits of no exception. No letter should exceed 300 words in length.

LIFEBOAT ASSOCIATION

Str.—This letter is the twenty-second of the series being issued with the authority of the directors of the Vancouver Island Lifebreak Association. The last letter continued the report of the fine rescue work at Cromer, in December last, by the forty-five-foot twin screw motor lifeboat H. F. Bailey, built by White at Cowes, in 1924, with crew of twelve men.

Party of Four Plunged Into Columbia River When Fog Obscured Ferry

Mrs. James McEwan, of Revelstoke, is dead, and three other passengers in a Vancouver car, which plunged into the Columbia River, at a ferry slip, at 1 a.m. Sunday, narrowly escaped with their lives, according to wireless advices, yesterday, to headquarters of the Provincial Police, from Inspector Shirras, at Kamloops. The names of those rescued were given as George W. Churton, Vancouver; Miss Marie Barton, Revelstoke, and J. G. McIntosh, Revelstoke.

The accident is believed to have been caused by mistake of conditions at the ferry slip, known as the Twelve-Mile Ferry. Driving in foggy weather, Mr. Churton, who is a traveler for the Canadian Roofing Products, Vancouver, drove off the end of the ferry slip into the waters of the Columbia River.

PLAYING FOR AVERAGE

Although it may seem absurd on the face of it, quite frequently a player's course of action can be influenced by the ability and the type of game played by another player at another table. This situation occurs in team-of-four matches. Often the declarer is confronted with two different lines of play and really has no way of deciding which one to adopt.

SAYS BUSINESS SYSTEMS UNFAIR

D. Rowlands, Welsh Newspaper Proprietor, Appalled by Dire State of Canadian Producers

D. Rowlands, of Welshpool, Wales, principal proprietor of The Montgomery County Times, at Welshpool, Shropshire Chronicle and Newport and Market Drayton Advertiser, at Newport, Shropshire County, paid a visit, over the week-end, during the course of a prolonged trip through Canada and the United States. During his stay in the city, he resided at the Empress Hotel. He left, yesterday, for San Francisco.

Mr. Rowlands declared he was appalled by the state of conditions both in Canada and the United States, although he admitted a similar state of affairs existed in Great Britain. The visiting newspaper proprietor said that in North America he found on one hand utter poverty throttling the producers, while wholesalers wallowed in pre-depression luxury.

MUST RAISE TARIFFS

When asked how these troubles might be eradicated, Mr. Rowlands replied that tariffs must be raised to protect producers of agricultural and natural products, and governments must see that producers receive a reasonable price for their produce. Next, wholesalers and other interests must not be permitted to make enormous profits at the expense of either producers or consumers.

He added that matters would be helped considerably if Dominions of the British Empire would strive for better trade relationships between themselves. The abnormally low prices of Japanese goods that are permitted to enter markets of Canada and Great Britain, are having a drastic effect, Mr. Rowlands concluded.

BUILD BARRACKS

EAST LONDON, South Africa.—Forming part of a scheme of coastal and harbor defences, arranged with the Imperial Government, the South African Government will spend $100,000 on military barracks and training grounds here.

CADDIES SEE CADDY AGAIN

Sea Serpent Sets New Vogue for Fall Styles—Now Wearing Tuft

No, the sea serpent hasn't deserted Victoria. It is only that he realized that with municipal refinancing, hold-ups, kidnapping cases, and by-elections holding the front page, there was little chance of a "head-line hunter" like him breaking into print again.

However, on Sunday, he decided that the League of Nations, the NRA, and trade pacts had had their innings, and it was time he came to bat.

Thus it was that two caddies, Joseph Carlow, of 1346 Stanley Avenue, and Ronald Carter, of 1880 St. Ann Street, were able to watch this elusive denizen of the deep cavort to its heart's content off the Oak Bay golf links.

MAKES GOOD CATCH

Caddy was really enjoying himself, having plenty of luck in his quest for breakfast. When the boys saw him, he was about 300 yards out from the fifth tee, and he had a nice sized fish in his mouth.

In keeping with the trend of Fall styles, Caddy was reported by the two caddies to be wearing a tuft on top of his head. His head, they said, looked like a camel's or a seal's. However, the boys did not stop to explain the wide difference between the two descriptions.

"We only saw about fifteen feet of his body. It was a dark green, mottled color, but he sure was churning up the sea in his wake," Joseph stated.

"Didn't he?" Joseph asked, turning to Ronald, who gave ready assent.

When the boys saw Caddy he was swinging out toward the tide rip, and heading toward San Juan Island. They watched him until he disappeared in the distance.

CONDITIONS IN EAST IMPROVED

A. E. Dunlop, K.C., Concludes Five Months' Tour of Continent

"A country like the United States, that has attained its eminence under a certain economic system, cannot easily adjust itself to a new system, however valuable in theory it may be," was the keynote of the impressions gained by A. E. Dunlop, K.C., following a five months' motor tour across the continent and back.

He was accompanied by Mrs. Dunlop. Directly concerning the NRA, Mr. Dunlop said: "The general impression we gathered as to the NRA and its associate enactments was one of hope, rather than certainty. The unemployed with whom we talked seemed always doubtful as to the outcome of the 'New Deal'."

The system being tried out by President Roosevelt did not appear in accord with the ideas of the everyday American.

"In Canada, through Ontario, Quebec, New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, there is no real depression. People are not so flush financially as they were, but business is being carried on in the same old way and with the usual beneficial results. The Canadian, like the Britisher, may do a little grumbling, but he is in a far better position than his neighbor across the border."

I would like to add that of all the places we visited, there is none like Victoria and its vicinity," stated Mr. Dunlop in an interview on his return to the capital city.

Mr. Dunlop observed that the Easterner was now experiencing the first pangs of winter, which will last until next March or later, while Victoria, barring a few warm showers, will bask in the sunshine for the same period. "A New York millionaire told my brother-in-law that Victoria was the only place in which to live. It was our greatest pleasure to visit the capital city all along our route, and many of our friends and acquaintances, I am sure, will visit this city in the near future," Mr. Dunlop remarked.

MADE LONG TOUR
Mr. and Mrs. Dunlop left Victoria on May 2. They visited the principal cities in the United States, passing through Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Wyoming, Utah, Nebraska, Illinois, Michigan, New Jersey, New York, Rhode Island, Connecticut, Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Maine. They also visited the principal centres in Ontario, Quebec, New Brunswick and Nova Scotia.

"The most beautiful spots we saw were along the Hudson River in New York State; the mountainous district of Pennsylvania; the Blue Mountains, south of Pendleton, Oregon; and the famous Columbia River Highway, Cape Cod, Mass., surpassed, as a summer resort, all the places we visited. The Eastern and Western portions of the continent appeared to be more prosperous than the central interior, where the drought has wrought havoc in the wheat and corn belts. Anyone passing along the coast from Maine to New York would never dream there was a depression, as everyone appeared busy. The depression, however, is not seen parading the highways, but in the sections of homes we visited, and where heads of households were idle," Mr. Dunlop said.

LABOR HEAD BACKS ROOSEVELT'S PLAN

convention might do, if anything about it.

Estimating the number of jobs in the country at 10,000,000, including about 2,000,000 now having Government relief jobs, Greene said the unemployment situation was the greatest problem before organized labor.

Recent strikes were said by Greene to have been caused "by hostile employers who refuse to permit their workers to engage in collective bargaining."

NEW EXPERIMENT
WASHINGTON, Oct. 1 (AP)—President Roosevelt applied himself today to a new experiment—a true to nature between capital and labor, with the United States Government as the umpire.

Acting on a plan he announced in a "fireside chat" to a coast-to-coast audience last night, Mr. Roosevelt is expected to summon leaders of industry and organized labor within a few days.

He will seek to have them forego strikes, lockouts or other methods of economic force for a "special trial period of industrial peace." He will ask pledges to settle differences by mutual agreement or, failing that, by the elaborate mediation machinery the new deal has established.

The President, accounting for his stewardship for the first time since June, assured the United States business world that the new deal is out to protect "individual initiative and the incentive of fair profit."

City and District

To Meet Today—Victoria Police Mutual Benefit Association will hold its monthly meeting today at 2:30 o'clock in the recreation room at headquarters.

Cemetery Approved—By Provincial order yesterday, use of between two and three acres at Port Renfrew as a burial ground was approved, on application by the San Juan Burial Park Company, Ltd.

Welfare Meeting—The San Juan Welfare Association will hold a meeting on Thursday at headquarters, 3101 Tillicum Road, at 2:30 o'clock. All members are requested to attend.

May Have Beer—Following an affirmative plebiscite in the Castlegar polling division of Rosedale-Trail, sale of beer by the glass in licensed premises was authorized by the Government yesterday for that area.

Arrange Tournaments—Victoria Lodge No. 1, I.O.O.F., will inaugurate their Winter activities by arranging a series of indoor sports tournaments which should prove interesting to the members.

Change Date—The meeting of the Central Saanich Ratepayers' Association, originally scheduled for tomorrow night, has been postponed until Wednesday, October 10, at 8 o'clock in Tomin School. Important business will be discussed.

Inspects Railway—Premier T. D. Pattullo, accompanied by Major S. F. M. Moore and Richard Cartwright, is spending this week on a tour of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway. The Premier is expected to visit the Bridge River district also, to see developments there.

Radio Tubes Stolen—City police are searching for a thief who specializes in stealing radio tubes. One tube was stolen from the home of Mrs. Kitchener, 1738 Leighton Road, over the week-end, while two tubes were taken from the residence of H. R. Sherrett, 1320 Manor Road.

Street Names—At the request of R. R. F. Sewell, municipal clerk of Saanich, the city engineer's department has prepared a list of street names that conflict with those existing in Saanich. It is understood that efforts will be made to reach some agreement on the change of some of the names so as to avoid confusion.

Need Applicants—Before the Y.M.C.A. first aid course can be started, several more applicants are needed. Archie McKinnon, physical director, announced last night, Dr. W. A. Gray will deliver the lectures. As soon as a few more persons apply for the St. John Ambulance course, it will be started, stated Mr. McKinnon.

No Decision—No decision has been reached in connection with the city firemen's application for an increase in salaries. Mayor David McKeown announced before his departure for Kamloops to attend the Union of British Columbia Municipalities convention. The Mayor is still waiting for data that he is gathering with respect to wages and hours of work in other municipalities.

Forgery Charge—In the city police court yesterday, George H. Young, charged with having committed forgery, using the name of H. Young, and obtaining thereby goods and cash on a cheque to the amount of $6.40, was granted a remand without entering his plea.

Norman W. Whitaker appeared for the accused and asked for a week's adjournment. He was remanded until next Tuesday.

Illustrated Lecture—The Victoria Horticultural Society will hold its regular monthly meeting at the City Hall tonight, commencing at 8 o'clock. An illustrated lecture on bulbs will be given by the courtesy of the Holland Bulb Gardens, Toronto, who have placed at the disposal of the society a set of seventy-five slides dealing with the various plant life of the bulb culture. Anyone interested is cordially invited to attend.

Wild Roses—Henry Brethour, of Sidney, reported yesterday that wild roses were blooming on his farm, and that this was the first time in forty years that he remembered wild roses blooming in October. Quite a number of the hedges in Victoria also are in bloom again. Mrs. Maude Hammond, of 2717 Avebury Avenue, also reports having found wild roses in bloom in the Happy Valley district.

Receive Quarter Million—British Columbia has received $250,000 of the $1,000,000 to be advanced by Ottawa for an emergency road programme in this Province. Hon. P. M. MacPherson said yesterday on return to his office. Contrasting Quebec and British Columbia ordinary road programmes, Mr. MacPherson stated Quebec has 10,000 miles of highway and spends $11,000,000 on them annually, while British Columbia has 19,800 miles and voted $1,400,000 for maintenance this year.

Killed On Track—Believed to have been run over by a southbound freight train on the C.N.R. line a mile and a half east of Haysport at 9:30 Sunday evening, Valentino Colussi, a section laborer, lost his life according to wireless advices to headquarters of the Provincial Police yesterday from the Prince Rupert detachment of the force. Details are unknown. The body was taken to Prince Rupert by Constables Raybone and Brown while Constable Gibson is investigating at the scene.

Offer Accepted—The Government yesterday accepted an offer to sell two small portions of land in the New Westminster district, held under authority of the Drying Commission, at $25 an acre. Eleven acres in one parcel are part of an old river channel at Marshall Creek. Approximately five acres, in another parcel, are cited as west of the V.V. & E. Railway. Land Settlement Board lands on which $2,700 was reported outstanding, will be sold for $1,200 on terms, to another purchaser.

View Building—Judge P. S. Lampman, of the County Court, accompanied by David Reid, registrar of the court, and by the counsel in the case of G. A. Rudd vs. Robert T. Filton and Charles E. Jones, visited Sooke yesterday afternoon for the purpose of inspecting the greenhouse about which the action hinges. The plaintiff brought suit for $300 against the defendants, under the Mechanics' Lien Act. The evidence was completed before the visit was paid to Sooke. W. T. Straith, represents the plaintiff, and P. R. Leighton the defendants.

Seek Naturalization—Three applicants for Canadian citizenship were brought before Judge J. Charles McIntosh in County Court yesterday. Christine Peterson, a native of Denmark, after six years here, was one of the applicants. Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson testified to her character. William I. Anderson, from the United States, who had lived here fifteen years was endorsed in his application by Charles Campbell and W. S. E. Emmerton. After living here twenty-one years, Joe Chia, a native of Italy, made application to become a Canadian. George R. Clare and Alex. Scroggie testified to his reliability.

Benches Meet—The quarterly meeting of the Benchers of the Law Society of British Columbia was held in the courthouse here yesterday for the transaction of regular business. J. W. deB. Farris, K.C., of Vancouver, who is the presiding officer of the organization, occupied the chair. There were present at the meeting all but two of the Benchers. In attendance besides Mr. Farris were Lindley Grease, K.C.; W. C. Moresby, K.C., and H. Reid, K.C.; D. E. McTaggart and W. E. Burns, K.C., of Vancouver; C. B. Garland, of Nelson, and W. J. Whiteside, K.C., and George Cassidy, of New Westminster.

Adjourned Hearing—John Caird was charged in the city police court yesterday with retaining in his possession a ring, knowing the same to be stolen. The value was placed at over $25 and was one of the articles of jewellery taken from the home of L. S. V. York, which had been ransacked while Mr. and Mrs. York were absent from the city. The ring was one of the heirlooms of the family and other similar articles disappeared when the house was entered. In this particular case, the settings had been taken out of the ring. The accused pleaded not guilty to the charge, and was remanded until Wednesday.

Interprets Will of LATE MRS. ROSEMERGEY
Judgment was handed down by Mr. Justice D. A. McDonald in Surrogate Court here yesterday, with respect to the disposal of the household effects and also the contents of the will of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Rosemergey. His Lordship finds that Miss Sarah Turner, who had been the servant and companion of the deceased for many years, is entitled to possession of these.

The matter was the subject of an argument before the court a little time ago when Mr. B. Jackson, K.C., representing the executors of the estate, asked for instruction with regard to the interpretation of the will.

The court has found that there was no doubt that when Mrs. Rosemergey, shortly before her death, handed the keys of her jewel case over to Miss Turner, she intended that the latter was to take possession of the contents of the case, and that with regard to the furniture and contents of the house, the intention of the deceased was that on her death, these should go to Miss Turner, with the exception of certain distributions from them, which are set out in a book prepared by the deceased and of which Miss Turner has had full knowledge. J. B. Clearhugh appeared for Miss Turner at the argument of the case.

exchange, suggested it might be advisable for the Government to have such a representative, but no action was taken on it.

Officials here express the suspicion that the movement of Argentine wheat is being hedged through the Winnipeg Exchange. "The practice," an official stated, "is for a shipper from Argentina to sell futures in Liverpool to cover the cargo during the month or six weeks it takes to go from South America to the United Kingdom or European ports."

TURNING TO WINNIEP
"With Argentine wheat pouring into European markets, the Liverpool market may have become too narrow to absorb all this wheat. It is suspected these shippers turned to Winnipeg and sold futures there. If such were the case, then the Government has been stalling the market not only against the futures selling to cover Canadian grain moving from the farms to the markets, but to cover Argentine wheat shipments as well. The futures sold by Argentine interests would be closed out, of course, as the ships arrived at their destinations."

It is claimed that Chicago is not available for the Argentine operations since it is a restricted market. Accordingly, Winnipeg offers the only opportunity if Liverpool becomes unsatisfactory.

ARE DISSATISFIED
While officials here do not think there is any effort to corner the world's wheat supply, they are very dissatisfied with the way Argentine wheat is poured onto the market.

"Our farmers would not for a minute stand to have their wheat dumped on the market as Argentina's is," one official said. The conference in London showed that the Argentine Government had very little control over the shipments. Private interests regulated the flow.

NO IMMEDIATE REACTION
BUENOS AIRES, Oct. 1 (AP)—A proposal made in Canada that operations of the Winnipeg, Liverpool and Buenos Aires Wheat Exchanges be investigated brought little immediate reaction from Argentine wheat circles today.

It was pointed out, however, that the past crop was bought and sold by the Government, which profited by rise in prices due to droughts in northern producing areas.

Mrs. Hutchinson Is Medalist in Meet At Oak Bay Links

Returns Fine Card of 80 to Top Field by Five Strokes—Mrs. H. N. Lay Heads "B" Class With 95—Match Play Today—Draw Released

Striking her way over the heavily-bunkered, sea-girt course in brilliant fashion, Mrs. Hutchinson captured the eighteen-hole qualifying round of the annual women's championship of the Victoria Golf Club yesterday, with a fine card of 80, good enough to lead the field by the comfortable margin of five strokes. Although the field in the "A" class is comparatively small, the competition is expected to be the keenest in years. Mrs. H. N. Lay returned a card of 95 to head "B" class by two strokes. A large number teed off in this event.

Playing sound golf all the way, seldom off line or in any trouble worth talking about, Mrs. Hutchinson was the class of the field yesterday. By her fine performance from tee to green the medalist established herself a strong favorite to walk off with the honors. In second place came Mrs. Godfrey, with an 88, while Mrs. Philbrick returned a near 87 to take next position. Mrs. Sayward-Wilson, runner-up for the city crown to Mary Mackenzie-Grieve, came home with an 88, while Mrs. Mitchell was the only other competitor to break ninety, scoring an 89.

In "B" class, Mrs. G. C. Howell was two strokes back of the medal winner, while Mrs. Sheffield was next with 101, and Mrs. C. W. Pangman scored 102 to take fourth position. Two players were deadlocked for the next two places, Mrs. J. H. D. Benson and Miss G. Irving having 103's. Match play opens today and will continue throughout the week.

Alvin Crowder May Start Series for Cochrane's Squad

Cagey Veteran May Get Call for Tigers in Opening Game Tomorrow—Fans Eagerly Awaiting to See Detroit Battling for Honors for First Time Since 1909—Deans Are Ready

By EDWARD J. NEIL
Associated Press Sports Writer
DETROIT, Oct. 1 (AP).—The annual hysteria known as the world series rocked Detroit again for the first time in twenty-five years, today, as Mickey Cochrane's Tigers, and the city as well, whirled about to face the old familiar St. Louis Cardinals, headed by the new baseball heroes, the brothers Dean.

The Cards, with rubber-armed Dizzy roaring in the van, and his brother Paul silently nodding assent, aren't due into the motor vehicle capital until tomorrow from St. Louis, where their last-ditch comeback against Cincinnati Reds finally decided the National League championship when the New York Giants broke up in the face of the indignant Brooklyn Dodgers.

But tonight, though the battle call doesn't sound for the first time until Wednesday afternoon, the faithful were staggering around on their heels from the excitement of the first world series here since 1909, the first between two Western clubs since the White Sox scandal of 1919, the arguments over the possible starting pitchers, and the seats at Navin Field that were $4,000, but not nearly enough.

TAKE YOUR CHOICE
It was still that today, with the odds even money and take your choice. From the Tiger side the Deans will be hit as the even .300 slugging Bengals have hit everything they've faced on the way to their easy American League triumph, and the problem was merely how long it would take mighty, young "Schoolboy" Rowe, the cagey veteran Alvin Crowder, curve ball Tommy Bridges, burly Fire Eater Bill Hallahan, on the opening day, figuring that the advantage gained in a surprise victory there would leave the astounded Bengal set-up for the speed and courage of the lanky, fireball furies from Oklahoma, the Deans.

Similarly, there was considerable food for thought in the possibility that Frisch might cross the boys and start his crafty veteran of former Cardinal series triumphs, "Wild Bill" Hallahan, on the opening day, figuring that the advantage gained in a surprise victory there would leave the astounded Bengal set-up for the speed and courage of the lanky, fireball furies from Oklahoma, the Deans.

There were all kinds of rumors that the rival master-minds, Frankie Frisch and Cochrane, would top off their first full seasons at the helm of major league clubs with some of the fanciest, two-handed juggling any world series pitching staffs ever have encountered.

The cold-headed logic of the situation calls for Cochrane to start Rowe, who changed on a diet of boos from a sore arm hypochondriac in the Spring to the studiest right-hander in the league, winner of twenty-four games while losing only eight. Similarly, there seems no other choice for Frisch than to put the Tigers from the start on a rigid diet of Deans, starting with "Dizzy" following with Fire Eater, repeating the dose as long as possible. Big brother's final shout of the Reds, his second in three days, was his thirtieth victory of the season.

MAY SURPRISE
But Cochrane, raised in the master-minding school of Connie Mack, patriarch of the Athletics, might lean towards the same sort of a surprise maneuver that saw Mooses Grove and George Barnshaw left on the sidelines, as Howard Ehmke, an amazing outsider, hand-cuffed Chicago Cubs in the opening game of the 1929 series. Therefore, it was still that today, with the odds even money and take your choice. ## Molly Gourlay Is Lone Stroke Back Of Co-Medallists

Only Three Members of England's Team Fail to Gain Places in American Championship—Ada Mackenzie Qualifies—Glenna Vare and Lucille Robinson Tied for Top

By BOB CAVAGNARO
Associated Press Sports Writer,
PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 1 (AP).—Playing over a course soft from rains and lashed by a stiff autumn breeze, three members of the United States Curtis Cup team, victorious over a British side last week, covered the par-72 White Marsh Valley Country Club links in 82, today, to tie for the medal in the eighteen-hole qualifying round for the thirty-eight women's American golf championship. The co-medallists were Glenna Vare, five times former U.S. Open champion, and Lucille Robinson, of Des Moines, study Western champion, and Mrs. Leona Cheney, of San Gabriel, Cal.

They finished one stroke in front of Molly Gourlay, veteran British links woman, and Mrs. Carl H. Donner, of Shore Hills, N.J., who had 83.

Miss Ada Mackenzie, of Toronto, many times Canadian champion, carded 43-47-90, to land a qualifying berth. Mrs. F. J. Mulqueen, also of Toronto, shot a wobbly 48-47-95 over the trap-studded course and fell by the wayside.

The three representatives of the sixty-four qualifiers, who included eight players from the British Empire out of a field of 149, topped the performances of their fellow Curtis Cup players, and the team's combined total easily outshone the consolidated efforts of the British international team.

TRIO FAILS
With three exceptions, the British team qualified all of its members. Those who failed to make the grade were Mrs. George Coates, of Scotland; seventeen-year-old Pamela Barton, the baby of the squad, and Mrs. J. B. Walker, Irish champion. Wanda Morgan, of England, qualified with an 86. Diana Fishwick, of England, was among a group with 88. Diana Plumpton and Doris Chambers, others of the British Curtis Cup team, were safe with 90's.

THREE SOCCER GAMES BILLED

Wednesday League Eleven's Open Hayward Cup Series Tomorrow Afternoon

With the Macabees and the Outer Wharf Rangers making their season's debut, three matches in the Hayward Cup series will be played tomorrow by teams in the Victoria and District Wednesday Football League. The complete list of fixtures follows:

Outer Wharf Rangers vs. Hudson's Bay, Royal Athletic Park, referee, Alcock. Kick-off at 2:30 o'clock.

Spencer's vs. Garrison, Royal Athletic Park, referee, McMillan. Kick-off at 3:30 o'clock.

Navy vs. Macabees, Admirals Road grounds, referee, P. C. Shrimpton. Kick-off at 2:45 o'clock.

Outer Wharf Rangers, playing their first season in the Wednesday Football League, are an unknown quantity, but are reported to have a stronger eleven than when they played in the Saturday League a few seasons ago. Hudson's Bay, who trotted out a strong team last week and took Spencer's last year's champions, into camp on I. O. will have the same line-up out for tomorrow's fixture with the Rangers.

ARMY TO MEET SPENCER'S
The Spencer's-Garrison match is expected to be bitterly contested from the first foot of the referee's whistle. The Tommies will be out to show the Diamond "B" representatives that if they wish to cop the mid-week title again this year they must first give the Garrison serious consideration.

Macabees, who are playing under the managerial wing of Charlie Lewis, can be relied upon to field a good team for their initial match of the season against the Navy. The sailors will be much stronger than they were last week when they bowed before the superior combination of the Garrison, and will be slight favorites to humble the lodge men.

ORILLIA FANS PROTEST MOVE

Ontario Supporters Want Lacrosse Final Played in City of Winners

ORILLIA, Ont., Oct. 1 (CP).—Supported by more than 600 names, a petition was circulated here today by A. E. Smith, president of the Orillia branch of the Canadian Legion, protesting against the announcement that three of the five-game series to be played between the Orillia Terriers and the New Westminster Salmonbellies for the Canadian box lacrosse title will be played in Barrie.

The Canadian Amateur Lacrosse Association did not schedule any games for Orillia, home of the Terriers, and officials, players and Orillia fans are reported incensed at the decision.

Protest was made today to Gene Dooz, secretary of the Ontario Amateur Lacrosse Association, by Len Pratt, president of the Orillia Lacrosse Club. The communication stated: "Orillia players and citizens demand first game in Orillia. Any other arrangement is not acceptable to us. Will play remaining games anywhere."

Holiday Meet Carded at Oak Bay Golf Club

On Thanksgiving Day, Monday next, the qualifying round for the R. W. Gibson trophies will be played over eighteen holes medal play. Competitors will choose their partners and opponents, and arrange for their starting times. Post entries will be accepted. Prizes will be awarded for the best gross and best net scores.

The sixteen best net scores, will qualify to play off, match play, for the trophies. The runners-up will also receive prizes, and there will be other flights and prizes according to the number of entries. In the qualifying round, half the combined handicaps will be allowed, and in playing off the flights three-eighths of the difference in the combined handicaps will be allowed.

George Ozard Rolls 416 in Fivepin Game

SENDING 416 pins flying all over the alley pile, at the Olympic Recreation, George Ozard, a member of the Pacific Meat fivepin quintette, rolled the highest score ever recorded in this city. After starting with four strikes, Ozard lost the four pins on a good hit in the next frame, but picked it off on his second ball for a spare. From this stage on he rolled strike after strike and finished his unusual feat with seven successive strikes.

Virginia Vane Says:

FOUR YEARS UNHAPPINESS HAD OMEN FOR FUTURE MARRIAGE

Dear Virginia Vane: I fell in love four years ago with a girl who was decidedly not the type I had wanted to marry. She played around with the wrong kind of fellows and she admitted she had a past. But I couldn't help being in love with her.

Gradually I found out her good qualities and I did everything in my power to bring these out in her. She seemed to want to change her ways but she was always going back to them, when I wasn't around. I forgave her over and over again. I didn't seem able to do anything else. Sometimes I couldn't eat or sleep, thinking of the things she'd done to me—but always I went back to her and tried to make something of her.

Now, after four years she has agreed to marry me. But she does not seem happy over this. Indeed, she has given me the impression, many times, that she resents my forcing a decision from her. I told her I would never see her again unless she gave me a definite answer as to whether she would marry me or not.

I know I love her—because how could I have gone through all this with her for years—if I had not loved her? But I can't tell whether she loves me or not. I can't make her out. Will you try to help.—Paul.

Yes, you could have gone through all that agony and humiliation not only for four years—but for ten if necessary—and still not truly love your wayward sweetheart, Paul. I believe that from the first you have been deceived about your "love" for her.

First of all she fascinated you. There was just enough bad in her to give you a sense of adventure in being seen about with her. Secondly, you were delighted to find in her qualities which you would have confidently expected to find in another type of girl, and thus might not have noticed them or attached so much importance to them. Thirdly, you plied the new sweetheart because you saw that she was capable of wanting to change her ways.

Few men are able to resist the temptation to reform an attractive sinner. And you were not unnatural when you undertook the task of causing your lady to see the error of her ways. It was easy enough once you'd started the reform act, for you to believe yourself wholly in love. And the more the girl hurt you, the more she made you suffer just that much more did you become wrapped up in her. You couldn't honestly have loved her during all those months of torture—because you see, you never really trusted her. And trust must be a part of love, or the grand old emotion collapses completely.

You made a habit of being infatuated with this girl and nothing could break you of it—not even her constant betrayals—not even your knowledge that she preferred to be with men who were your inferiors.

You had plenty of time during those four years to understand that you and your affinity were not suited to each other—but you wouldn't face the truth. At any moment, you'd analyzed the situation carefully you could have seen for yourself how disastrous marriage would be between you, serious-minded, honorable, domestically-inclined and the little fly-by-night who couldn't for your sake give up the life she found best suited to her.

And all the time, can't you see what her attitude was? She was grateful to you from the beginning. She admired you and respected you. She was flattered at receiving a different sort of attention from that which she was accustomed to. She was afraid to cheat on you too often—or show such utter indifference to your wishes—that she was bound to lose you.

So she played along with you, sometimes find it impossible not to let you down but always penitent and remorseful enough to get you back.

And in the end, I believe she grew to resent you. The reformer may love his sinner, but the reformer seldom loves the man or woman who makes her realize her own weakness and lack of character.

Your true love had enough sense to know that once she let you go she would never be able to replace you. And she realized she needed certain qualities in you. That's why she toyed with the idea of marriage instead of dismissing it as impossible.

That explains her sulky resentful attitude now. She has at last been forced into taking a definite step. She would have preferred to go along with you, in and out of trouble, for as long as you could stand it. She doesn't particularly want marriage—but she is still afraid of losing anything as substantial and dependable as your affection for her.

Try her out. Tell her that you'll give her another few months to make up her mind about marriage and see how quickly she jumps at the chance! Start to work now and analyze the whole situation as you never have before. Draw your own conclusions. Free yourself from an entanglement which has never caused you anything but pain and which can never lead to a happy marriage.

There is a possibility that your little lady may some day find the man who can manage her and teach her to be self-respecting. But you aren't the man for the job. You have proved that. Only your blind belief in a miraculously happy ending has carried you so long through such a difficult affair.

I know you can still be happy with the right girl when you find her—but you must first end this relationship before you can prepare yourself for a normal, healthy attachment such as your nature needs.

Little Bedtime Stories

Bobby Coon Has a Busy Day
By THORNTON W. BURGESS

Bobby Coon had left Ol' Mistah Buzzard sitting on his favorite dead tree. Every few minutes Ol' Mistah Buzzard would chuckle. "B'r Coon am right smart and Ah reckon Unc' Billy Possum am gwine to get a taste of his own medicine. Yes, sah. Ah reckon he am," said Ol' Mistah Buzzard. Then he chuckled as he spread his broad wings and said, "Ah reckon Ah better be up in the blue, blue sky, where Ah can look right down and see all the fun."

In the meantime Bobby Coon was hurrying back and forth across the Green Meadows and through the Green Forest, calling on all the little people who live there. He whispered a few words in the ear of each and then hurried on to whisper to the next one. When Bobby would first begin to whisper, the one to whom he was whispering would shake his head and look as if he didn't believe a word of what Bobby was saying. Then Bobby would point to Ol' Mistah Buzzard sailing round and round high up in the blue, blue sky, where everybody could see him and whisper some more, and when he got through he always carried away with him a promise that just what he had asked should be done.

You see, it was this way: Bobby Coon just happened to take a nap in a hollow log on which Ol' Billy Possum and a friend of his from way down South, a stranger in the Green Forest, just happened to sit down and talk over the great joke they were playing on the little people of the Green Forest and the Green Meadows. It was a joke which was making all kinds of trouble, dreadful trouble. It seems that the stranger, whom nobody but Unc' Billy knew was in the Green Forest, could make his voice sound just like the voices of other little people. So he would hide and say unkind things about others, always in a voice which sounded exactly like the voice of someone else. Of course these things were overheard, and pretty soon no one would speak to anyone else excepting to Unc' Billy Possum. You know the stranger was a friend of Unc' Billy's and took great care to say only the nicest things about Unc' Billy. Of course, Unc' Billy was becoming very, very popular, so he kept urging his friend with the queer voice to keep right on with the trick and not make himself known.

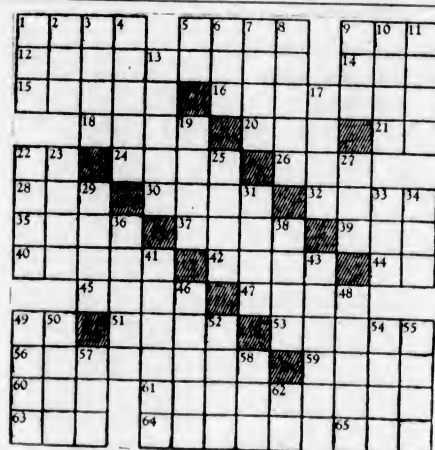

Bobby Coon had heard it all as he lay in the hollow log. As soon as the way was clear, he had hurried over to call on Ol' Mistah Buzzard, who also came from way down South. Ol' Mistah Buzzard had said right away that the stranger must be his old friend Mocker, and that it was just like Mocker and Unc' Billy Possum to put their heads together and play such a joke on the little people of the Green Meadows and of the Green Forest. It was then that Bobby Coon had

ANSWER TO YESTER'S PUZZLE

What "Nerves" Do To Feminine Loveliness

Worry, and other forms of nerve strain are the greatest destroyers of feminine beauty. The offices of many nerve specialists are filled with women who are broken by worry. The evidence is seen in carelines and wrinkles. And the excessive use of powder and cosmetics, to disguise the appearance of age. To retain health and youth and beauty it is necessary to keep the blood rich and red and to thereby nourish the depleted nerves. Back to health and vigor. You can do this by using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. This restorative treatment puts iron in the blood. It enables you to rest and sleep well. Quells the irritable nerves. And makes you feel and look fine.

CONVENTION TO BE HELD HERE

Veterinarians Elect Officers
—Dr. H. J. Keown Again
Made President

VANCOUVER, Oct. 2 (CP).—Dr. H. J. Keown was re-elected president of the British Columbia Veterinary Association at the annual meeting here Saturday. Dr. R. G. Cuthbert, of Vancouver, was elected vice-president, while Dr. W. M. Gilman, of Cloverdale, was re-elected secretary for the eleventh consecutive time.

The executive comprises Dr. J. W. Frank, Vancouver; Dr. T. H. Jagger, Vancouver; Dr. M. S. Sparrow, Stevenson, and Dr. F. W. Otterwell, Ladner. Members of the board of examiners, Dr. W. H. McKenzie, Dr. W. A. Ross and Dr. M. Sparrow, were re-elected.

The secretary reported that the financial statement of the organization was in fair condition, considering the times. Matters concerning a domestic policy were discussed.

The Pacific-Northwest Veterinary Association, which takes in Washington, Oregon and British Columbia, will meet next year at Victoria, it was announced.

At a banquet held by the association in Hotel Vancouver in the evening, Hon. K. C. MacDonald, Minister of Agriculture, addressed the gathering briefly. The minister remarked on the fine work which the association is doing and stressed the point that the Provincial Government will not invade the field of the veterinary.

How It Started

"ON PLEASURE BENT"

Time changes almost everything except the desire—which seems to be instinctive—in all peoples for pleasure, for enjoyment, for one kind or another.

So it is that the phrase "on pleasure bent," which sounds quite modern, is, in fact, relatively not at all so.

The author of this expression is the poet, William Cowper, who died at the close of the eighteenth century.

It appears in his History of John Gilpin: "That though on pleasure she was bent, She had a frugal mind."
